Introduction

Welcome to UPES!

The “UPES Principles of Engagement” will acquaint you with UPES’s policies and all information relating to your association with the University.

UPES has laid down certain guidelines for its full-time, part-time and contractual employees to follow while associated with UPES. It is the responsibility of all such employees to read, understand, familiarize, and comply with the stated policies pertaining to them.

Please note that this document is for internal circulation only. It contains confidential information, and its contents are not to be shared with any person not employed with UPES.

These policies may be revised from time to time as per the growing needs of UPES and any revision made will be duly notified.

If you have any queries regarding these policies, please feel free to reach out to the Human Resources (HR) department for assistance.

We are glad to have you on board and we hope your association with UPES will be challenging and rewarding!

Code of Conduct: Our way of life

1.	Objective
1.1.	The purpose of Code of Conduct is to define the way of life at UPES and articulate high standards of honesty, integrity and ethical behavior expected of all employees, while meeting the requirements of external stakeholders and applicable laws. Code of Conduct provides guidelines to the employees to enable them to understand their responsibilities and obligations and provide guidance on expected behavior at the workplace if faced with an ethical dilemma or conflict of interest.
2.	Applicability
2.1.	This policy shall be applicable to all full-time, part-time and contractual employees of UPES, as well as those associated in any other capacity. (Collectively referred to as “employees” for the purpose of Code of Conduct Policy).
3.	Guidelines
3.1	Employment and Responsibility of Employees
3.1.1.	All employees can be transferred / posted to any location in India as per the requirements of the University, communicated from time to time.
3.1.2.	All employees shall ensure to be aware of and abide by the Codes elucidated in this document.
3.1.3.	All employees shall be responsible for behaving / acting in ethical manner compliant with the applicable laws, rules and regulation and promote ethical conduct in the University.
3.1.4.	All employee shall be responsible for reporting any violations of the codes, they observe within the University, to the appropriate authority.
3.2	Responsibility of Functional Heads / Deans
3.2.1.	All Deans/ Functional Heads shall be responsible for driving a culture of integrity, honesty and ethical behavior among other employees and in the University.
3.2.2.	They are expected to be a role model of behaviors expected of employees and also encourage other employees to abide by UPES’s Way of Life.
3.2.3.	They should encourage different opinions and address issues of the employees, in a transparent manner, in order to maintain a healthy work environment.
3.3	Codes of Conduct
3.3.1	Honesty and integrity
	a. All employees shall demonstrate highest standards of honesty and integrity in their conduct at all times within the premises of UPES as well as outside of it.
	b. Any unethical behavior or practice by an employee shall be highly unacceptable and non-negotiable.
3.3.2	Focus on Quality
	a. All employees shall devote their time and attention to UPES, its work, its students and other internal and external stakeholders.
	b. All employees shall discharge their duties as entrusted from time-to-time responsibly, with full commitment and to the best of their potential.
	c. All employees shall adhere to the quality standards of UPES, as prescribed from time to time, in order to ensure that service of highest quality is provided to our students and other internal and external stakeholders.
	d. All employees shall be accountable for the overall experience of the students and other internal and external stakeholders.
	e. All employees shall ensure that any information collected, produced or obtained in the course of employment with UPES, whether communicated orally or written in paper or electronic format, is accurate, complete and correct to the extent possible.
3.3.3	National Interest
	a. All employees shall ensure that any information collected, produced or obtained in the course of employment with UPES, whether communicated orally or written in paper or electronic format, is accurate, complete and correct to the extent possible.
3.3.4	Respect for All
	a. All employees shall demonstrate respect and trustworthy behavior in all dealings with their student, colleagues as well as other internal and external stakeholders (such as parents of the students, guest speakers, and people from industry, among others).
3.3.5	Team Work
	a. All employees shall uphold the spirit of team work and ensure that the best interest of the University prevails at all times.
3.3.6	Open Door Culture
	a. All employees shall foster an open-door culture at workplace, where all students, employees and other internal stakeholders have access to each other regardless of their position or influence in the University.
3.3.7	Equal Opportunities Employer
	a. UPES is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate any person because of his / her gender, caste, religion, age, marital status, nationality, ancestry, ethnicity, geographical origin, sexual orientation, disability or any other trait protected by law, with respect to any terms of employment such as hiring, promotion, transfer, compensation & benefits, career development opportunities, etc.
	b. All employment related decisions shall be based on merit of the person only, and UPES shall not discriminate any person because of his / her personal characteristics / traits.
3.3.8	Workplace Free of harassment
	a. A harassment free workplace is a right of all employees and UPES respects this right.
	b. All employees shall ensure a healthy and safe work environment that is free from harassment of any kind or form.
	c. All employees are prohibited from indulging in harassment of any kind or form - whether physical, verbal, psychological, or sexual in nature.   - a. Counseling will be offered, where appropriate, to resolve problems.
  - b. No disciplinary action will be taken against any employee until the case has been fully investigated.
  - c. At every stage in the procedure the employee will be advised of the nature of the complaint against him or her and will be given the opportunity to state his or her case before any decision is made.
  - d. The level of any formal action will be dependent on the seriousness of the offence, having regard to the need for fairness and natural justice. The procedure is internal to UPES and does not allow for any external representation.
  - e. The decision taken by the appointed committee will be final and binding
- 3.12.2. Procedure for handling reported misconducts:
  - a. In the spirit of natural justice, the employee against whom the misconduct has been reported, will be given an opportunity to explain his / her case.
  - b. Depending on the explanation given by the employee HR shall decide the due course of action depending on the severity of the misconduct and previous record of the concerned employee.
  - c. In case of minor misconduct:
    - The employee shall be advised by the Reporting Manager of the conduct expected of him/her in the future and of the possible consequences if the misconduct is repeated.
    - Where necessary a verbal/ written warning may be given by the Reporting Manager. However, a record of a verbal/ written warning needs to be kept on the employee's personnel file held by HR and may be used in future proceedings.
  - d. In case of major misconduct:
    - A show-cause notice will be served to the employee against whom the misconduct has been reported.
    - If the explanation provided by the employee for the charges leveled in the show cause notice, is not satisfactory, a charge-sheet clearly setting forth the charges against him/her, will be served and an enquiry as stated below will be held.
    - The enquiry will be held by an Enquiry Officer appointed by UPES who should necessarily be at a higher grade than the accused.
    - During this enquiry, the accused will be given all reasonable opportunities to defend himself / herself against the charges leveled on him / her.
    - The accused will be permitted to produce witnesses in his / her defense and cross-examine any other witnesses on whose evidence the charge rests.
    - The Enquiry Officer will also sum up the evidence at the conclusion of the Enquiry and submit his / her Report to UPES pronouncing his observations against the charges leveled.

- The said report will be forwarded to the charge-sheeted employee for his / her comments thereon within a defined timeframe.
  - The competent authority will consider the report of enquiry, the reply of the charge-sheeted employee, if any, and either exonerate the accused or award him / her with a suitable punishment.
  - If the accused fails to respond to the show-cause notice by the stipulated time, or if he / she fails to be present at the enquiry or otherwise decides not to co-operate, the case will be preceded with ex- parte without the presence of or the co-operation of the accused.
  - If the competent authority feels that the misconduct committed is a serious one, any action commensurate with the gravity of misconduct can be undertaken as mentioned in subsequent clause.
- e. If, as a result of enquiry held, or explanation tendered, it is decided not to take any action, the employee will be deemed to have been exonerated of all the charges.

3.13 Disciplinary Actions in case of Misconduct

- 3.13.1. An employee found guilty of misconduct, any of the following actions commensurate with the offence may be taken:
- 3.13.2. Minor Actions:
  - a. Warning
  - b. Fine
  - c. Recovery to the full extent of actual amount of loss caused to UPES
- 3.13.3. Major Actions:
  - a. Suspension
    - An employee can be suspended pending investigation into charges against him / her. He / she will, however, be entitled to full salary for the period of suspension.
    - During the period of suspension, the employee may not leave the station, except with the written permission from UPES and will be liable to be called at any time and / or on any day in connection with his / her case.
    - UPES has the right to suspend an employee who is accused in a court of law for any criminal offence.
  - b. Withholding of increments for any specific period with or without cumulative effect.
  - c. Demotion to a junior post, lower grade, lower pay scale.
  - d. Discharge or dismissal from service
    - The University may dismiss, discharge, or terminate the services of any employee without following the procedure for handling reported misconducts, if the employee has been given the punishment of imprisonment by a court of law.
    - If the employee is dismissed as a result of the enquiry or as a result of imprisonment by court of law, the dismissal will have effect from the day on which the order of dismissal is passed by the appointed committee/competent authority.
- 3.13.4. Reporting Concerns
  - a. Each employee must report actual or potential deviation from the guidelines in this document or applicable laws to the Dean / Functional Head or the Vice-Chancellor.
  - b. All such reports of deviation shall be treated as being confidential.
  - c. Additionally, complete protection shall be provided to the complainant against any possible retaliation by any person

3.14 Acknowledgement of Code of Conduct

- 3.14.1. All employees shall acknowledge receipt of this policy or any modification thereto, in the Acknowledgement Form (Annexure 2) and submit it to HR indicating that they have received, read, understood and agreed to comply with the policy.

Recruitment and Selection

1. Objective

- 1.1. The objective of this policy is to lay down guidelines for hiring talented and competent professionals for UPES who will contribute their best to fulfill the goals of UPES.
- 1.2. UPES is committed to select candidates based only on merit and as seen fit for the role to be hired for. UPES is against any form of discrimination while employing people at UPES.

2. Applicability

- 2.1. This policy is applicable to all full-time and part-time employees, including those appointed on contract basis.

3. Recruitment and Selection Principles

3.1. Equal Opportunity, Diversity & Inclusion

- 3.1.1. UPES is committed to provide equal opportunity to all and attract a diverse and effective workforce with a wide range of abilities, experience and skills.
- 3.1.2. Therefore, employment practices in UPES will be based on merit, qualifications, and competencies suitable to the given role; and will not be influenced or affected by an applicant's or employee's gender, caste, religion, age (within statutory limits), marital status, nationality, ancestry, ethnicity, geographical origin, sexual orientation, disability, proximity to another employee, or any other trait protected by law.
- 3.1.3. UPES does not tolerate any form of bias or discrimination against any employee, by virtue of any above indicated trait.
- 3.1.4. There will be no preference given to any candidate. Existing employees may provide references; however, hiring decision will be solely based on merit.
- 3.1.5. Any employee involved in the hiring process, found to be engaging in any type of unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

3.2. Employment of Relatives

- 3.2.1. UPES permits the employment of relatives in the University provided:
  - a. They do not work for the same department or function.
  - b. They do not share the same Reporting Manager and do not have any direct or indirect reporting relationship.
  - c. When an employee becomes aware that a relative is seeking employment in the University, it is her/his duty to inform HR regarding the relationship shared with the candidate. It is the duty of HR to let the Reporting Manager know about the candidate.
  - d. The Dean/ Functional Head shall approve hiring of relatives. HR should ensure that the same is documented and kept in records.
  - e. It is the responsibility of the Dean/ Functional Head to monitor changes in employee reporting relations after the initial hiring to ensure compliance with this policy.
  - f. In the course of employment, if the situation arises that two employees become close relatives and are in a position where direct or indirect conflict of interest may arise, it is the responsibility of the employees to inform the Reporting Manager and HR regarding this change.
  - g. Either of the employees may seek a transfer or change, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor. If there is no possibility of a change within the University, the HR may ask either of the two to seek alternative employment.
  - h. The definition of relatives, for the purpose of this policy, includes relatives both by blood and marriage, i.e., parents, parents-in-law, spouse, children, brothers, sisters, brother-in-law and sister-in-law.

4. Guidelines

4.1. Categories of Employment

- 4.1.1
- Permanent employee is a person who has been engaged on a regular basis and includes any person who has been confirmed in writing on satisfactory completion of period of probation. These employees are eligible for employment-related benefits, as per the applicable Principles of Engagement.
- 4.1.2
- Probationer is a person who is employed to fill a regular / permanent position and has not completed the stipulated probationary period applicable to her / his level. On satisfactory completion of the probation period, the probationer’s service will be confirmed in writing. These employees will then become eligible for employment-related benefits, as per the applicable Principles of Engagement.
- 4.1.3
- Contract employee (or Fixed-term Employee) is one whose contract of engagement is for a specific tenure and is eligible for employment-related benefits as specified in the individual contract terms.
- 4.1.4
- Part Time Employee means an employee who is employed to work for less than the normal period of working hours on a working day/week. ‘Part Time Employees’ shall be entitled to a fixed compensation, and / or other benefits as mentioned in their terms of appointment.

4.2. Manpower Planning

- 4.2.1.
- Manpower Planning helps to estimate the annual manpower costs and ensures its alignment with the current plans of UPES. This provides clarity to HR department on the basis of which recruitment strategy for the year is designed by Head - HR in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor/ and Deans/ Functional Heads.
- 4.2.2.
- Manpower plan should clearly indicate

- (i) the positions,
- (ii) number of vacancies
- (iii) the type of employment and
- (iii) whether it is a new/ replacement position.

4.2.3. The final approval on manpower plan will be given by the Vice-Chancellor.

4.3. Job Description

- 4.3.1.
- Job descriptions are an important input for HR to hire the right candidate.
- 4.3.2.
- It is the responsibility of the Reporting Manager to prepare a Job Description in the prescribed format in consultation with HR for every position.
- 4.3.3.
- The Dean / Functional Head is required to approve the Job Description.

4.4. Recruitment Process

- 4.4.1.
- Vacancy and Approval
- a.
- Recruitment is the responsibility of the Reporting Manager and s/he shall initiate the recruitment process for a vacant position.
- b.
- The Reporting Manager is required to inform HR when a vacancy arises, through an e-mail.
- c.
- In case of a vacancy arising, which is not part of the annual manpower plan, a business case will have to be presented by Deans/ Functional Heads to the Vice-Chancellor and Head - HR for exceptional approvals.
- d.
- HR will be responsible for identifying the sources to be used for sourcing of candidates.
- e.
- The different sources of hiring are as described below:

External Sources	Internal Sources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Job Portals like Naukri, Monster</li> <li>Social Networking sites like LinkedIn</li> <li>Consultants</li> <li>Advertisement in newspapers</li> <li>Campus Hiring</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Internal Mobility/Job Posting</li> <li>In-house Data Bank</li> <li>Employee referrals</li> <li>UPES Website</li> </ul>

Job Portals / Websites

b.

Vacancies will be advertised on the identified Job Portals by HR for a minimum of 30 days depending on the urgency of the required position

c.

Consultants / Executive Search firms

- Recruitment consultants are specialists in sourcing candidates for all kinds of recruitments and their services can be used for recruitment for various positions.
- The terms and conditions including the commercials for the recruitment agencies shall be negotiated and empaneled accordingly by HR.
- HR shall coordinate the entire process with the recruitment consultant. No other employee will contact recruitment agencies directly. However, employees may refer such consultants to the HR, who may then follow the empanelment process.
- The recruitment consultants engaged shall be evaluated every 6 months and may be changed if the services offered are not found satisfactory.
- HR will track the expenses on regular basis and maintain the records.

d.

Advertisements in Newspapers

- HR shall give advertisements in local and national newspapers regarding vacancies at UPES.
- The content of the advertisement shall be drafted by HR in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor / Deans / Functional Heads.

University Website and Social Networking Sites

- HR shall also upload the vacancies on UPES website and the UPES’s accounts on various social networking sites, as and when required. No employee will be authorized to post any vacancy on social networking websites without prior approval from HR.

f.

In House Data Bank

- All applications, as well as CVs received at any point in time will be stored in data bank at UPES for future references for recruitments and can be used as and when new vacancies arise. HR will be responsible for maintaining this database.
- All original applications together with completed short-listing/rejection notes (if any) must be preserved by HR for at least one year from the date of application.

Internal Mobility

- Based on the recruitment plan and the position, HR shall first make an attempt to utilize an internal resource to fill in the vacancy.
  - An employee applying for an internal job posting should
    - have at least 24 months of continuous employment in the current role with UPES.
    - have a rating of 'E' or above during last 2 consecutive performance review cycles.
    - have the requisite qualifications, skill sets, behavioral competencies and track record of achievements
  - The internal job postings (IJPs) will be shared with all employees in an email format.
  - The IJP will be active for 1 week from the date of posting within which the interested employees can apply with last date for application clearly being specified in the IJP.
  - All employees meeting the eligibility criteria can apply to the position keeping their managers informed about the same. These applications will reach the internal mobility counsellor who will then evaluate all the applications based on the eligibility criteria. All those meeting the eligibility criteria, will then be evaluated by the hiring manager(s).
  - In case the employee is required to travel, TA/DA for attending interviews will be reimbursed to the candidate in accordance with the company's travel policy.
  - In case selected, the internal mobility counsellor, the current manager and the new hiring manager along with the internal candidate will work on the transition plan including the plan for knowledge transfer, last date of work etc.
  - Ideally, no current manager will be allowed to retain the employee beyond the notice period applicable to the moving employee. In case of conflict in release of the employee, the final decision will rest with the Vice- Chancellor, and Head - HR. This is to ensure that both business continuity & personal aspirations are met, as part of this process.
  - Employee has the option to decline the offer if her/his expectations are not met, after the offer has been made.
  - Once the movement of the employee is finalized, the movement will happen at the same level and any increments or promotions will happen as per the merit cycle. If a movement happens during the middle of the year – ratings from both managers will be taken on a prorated basis and a common rating will be arrived at.
  - Relocation assistance will be paid in the event of change of place of work due to a successful IJP movement.
  - The talent acquisition team in the meanwhile will work directly with the current manager on the positions that get vacant, as a result of the internal mobility.
  - This policy may see certain variations depending on the need of the role, which shall be informed with the IJP mail.
- d. Employee Referral
- UPES encourages its employees to refer their friends and acquaintances who fit the specifications given in the job descriptions for the vacant positions.
  - Participation in the Employee Referral Scheme is open to all full-time employees excluding members of HR and employees in band G4 and above.
  - All applications should be submitted to HR.
  - The referrer should not be a part of interview panel or any decision- making process related to selection and hiring of referred.
  - Referrals cannot include candidates who have already attended interview with the University in the past six months.
  - There is no bar on number of candidates referred.
  - The referral payout will happen in one month of the candidate joining.
  - If any resume referred is already a part of HR database, it will not be considered as a part of this scheme.
  - Below given are the rewards associated with the Employee Referral.

c. Psychometric test should be conducted for employee in grade G4 & above.

4.6.4. Background Verification Process

- a. Background verification by an external agency shall be done for all selected candidates who have accepted the letter of intent.
- b. A professional background verification agency would be appointed to check and verify the candidate's documents.
- c. The process will include the following documents to be verified:
  - Educational Qualification
  - Previous Employment (up to 2 employers)
  - Permanent Address
- d. If the candidate is found to falsifying any of his / her documents or claims, the job offer will be terminated immediately by giving a written notice.

4.7. Final Selection

- 4.7.1. After the interview, the panelists shall summarize their interview notes and give their recommendation on which candidate will be selected, supported with concrete reasons.
- 4.7.2. HR shall prepare the final shortlist of candidates, based on the recommendations of the interview panel and collect the interview evaluation sheets (Annexure 4) and selection minutes
- 4.7.3. The selection minutes and interview evaluation sheets are submitted by HR to the Vice-Chancellor for approval.
- 4.7.4. The salary for the final candidate should be decided and negotiated by HR.
- 4.7.5. Any offer, where the designation and level being offered is different from that indicated on the approved vacancy, shall require prior approval of the Vice- Chancellor.

4.8. Letter of Intent

- 4.8.1. The letter of intent shall be sent to the candidate through e-mail within one week of salary negotiation.
- 4.8.2. The letter of intent contains the details of the position, school / department, location, reporting relationship, salary details, role and responsibilities, etc.
- 4.8.3. The letter of intent must be made in writing (Annexure 6) and signed by the authorized signatory of HR.
- 4.8.4. The candidate must convey acceptance of the offer within 7 days of receipt of the letter along with a signed copy of the letter of intent stating the confirmed date of joining.
- 4.8.5. If the candidate fails to comply with the provisions of the letter of intent or date of joining or for any other reason, the offer may be withdrawn.
- 4.8.6. In such cases, the next candidate in the final shortlist can be offered the position or a fresh recruitment may be undertaken.

Probation and Confirmation Policy

1. Objective

- 1.1. The purpose of this policy is to lay down the guidelines pertaining to probation and confirmation of full time employees at UPES.

1.2. Need for Probation

- 1.2.1. Probation period helps the new employees to become more proficient at their job with the support from UPES
- 1.2.2. From the University's perspective, probation period provides opportunity to gauge areas of strengths and development of new employees and plan developmental activities accordingly.
- 1.2.3. It allows UPES to train and evaluate the new employees on various competencies and ensure that, at the time of confirmation, all employees are aware of University's expectations from them.

2. Applicability

- 2.1. This policy is applicable to all full-time employees.

3. Guidelines

3.1. Probation Period

- 3.1.1. All faculty members shall be on probation for a period of 1 year, from the date of joining. However, in case a faculty member demonstrates exceptional performance, s/he may be confirmed after 6 months of joining, subject to assessment of performance and approval by the Approving Authority indicated in Performance Review and Confirmation Process.
- 3.1.2. All non-faculty members shall be on probation for 6 months, from the date of joining.
- 3.1.3. Reporting Manager should discuss the performance expectations, goals and KRAs with the new employee, within 30 days of his / her joining, and the same should be documented by the employee and signed-off by the Reporting Manager. These goals and KRAs would form the basis of performance review process during the Probation period.
- 3.1.4. HR should interact with the new employees on regular intervals to understand if the employees have acclimatized to the culture and environment and address any issues which the employees might have.

3.2. Performance Review and Confirmation Process

- 3.2.1. All employees are confirmed only on successful completion of probation, which is ascertained through on-going monitoring, periodic performance reviews and confirmation process.
- 3.2.2. UPES follows a two-fold review process for confirmation of employees, which is detailed below:
- a. An Interim Performance Review will be conducted by the Reporting Manager, along with a feedback discussion, post completion of 90 days.
  - b. Additionally, as part of the confirmation process, Probation Assessment shall be undertaken by the Reporting Manager and the approving authority.
    - Probation Assessment will be conducted twice over the Probation period for faculty member, once at 6 months' milestone, and then on completion of 1 year.
