

SDG 8: Decent Work and Economic Growth

SDG 8 in India: Decent Work and Economic Growth

Sustainable Development Goal 8 (SDG 8) aims to promote sustained, inclusive, and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment, and decent work for all. In India, achieving SDG 8 is critical given the country's large and diverse workforce, rapidly growing economy, and challenges such as unemployment, informal labor, and skill gaps. The government has introduced several initiatives to foster economic growth, create jobs, and ensure fair working conditions.

Efforts by the Indian Government to Achieve SDG 8

- 1. Skill Development Initiatives:
 - The Skill India Mission aims to equip youth with market-relevant skills and increase employability through initiatives like Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana (PMKVY).
 - The Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Grameen Kaushalya Yojana (DDU-GKY) focuses on skill development for rural youth to improve employment opportunities.
- 2. Boosting Entrepreneurship:
 - Programs like Startup India and Stand-Up India provide funding, mentoring, and support to entrepreneurs, especially women and marginalized groups.
 - Schemes like Mudra Loans offer financial assistance to small businesses, enabling them to grow and create jobs.
- 3. Employment Generation Programs:
 - The Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (MGNREGA) guarantees 100 days of wage employment annually for rural households, ensuring a basic income and fostering community development.
 - Urban employment schemes like the Prime Minister's Employment Generation Programme (PMEGP) promote micro-enterprises and self-employment.
- 4. Formalizing the Workforce:
 - Efforts to bring informal workers into the formal economy include initiatives like the Shram Suvidha Portal, which simplifies compliance with labor laws.
 - The e-Shram portal registers unorganized workers, providing them with access to social security benefits.
- 5. Economic Growth Strategies:
 - The government focuses on infrastructure development, renewable energy projects, and industrial growth to drive economic expansion.
 - Special economic zones (SEZs) and industrial corridors foster investment and job creation.
- 6. Women in the Workforce:
 - Programs like Mahila Shakti Kendra and reservation in local governance empower women economically and socially.
 - Flexi-working policies and maternity benefits enhance work participation for women.
- 7. Digital Transformation:

- The Digital India Initiative creates jobs in IT and digital services, improving access to work opportunities across urban and rural areas.
 - Online job portals and platforms bridge the gap between employers and job seekers.
- 8. Protecting Labor Rights:
- Reforms in labor laws aim to ensure fair wages, safe working conditions, and social security for workers.
 - The Code on Wages, 2019, establishes minimum wage laws and mandates timely payment of wages.

SDG 8 at the University of Petroleum and Energy Studies (UPES)

UPES supports SDG 8 by fostering employability, entrepreneurship, and industry collaboration. The university's focus on quality education, skill development, and career readiness aligns with global and national priorities for decent work and economic growth.

- 1. Industry-Aligned Academic Programs:
 - UPES offers industry-specific programs in fields like energy, technology, law, and business, preparing students for high-demand sectors.
 - The curriculum integrates real-world projects, internships, and experiential learning to enhance employability.
- 2. Skill Development and Career Services:
 - The university's Career Services Department provides career counseling, skill development workshops, and placement support.
 - Programs like UPES Plus offer students additional certifications in emerging areas like data analytics, AI, and digital marketing.
- 3. Promoting Entrepreneurship:
 - The UPES Incubation Centre supports startups by providing mentorship, funding opportunities, and networking with industry experts.
 - Student entrepreneurs receive guidance to turn their innovative ideas into sustainable businesses.
- 4. Research and Innovation:
 - Faculty and students engage in research projects that address real-world challenges, fostering innovation and contributing to economic growth.
 - Partnerships with industries ensure that research aligns with market needs and job creation.
- 5. Women Empowerment Initiatives:
 - Programs like the Shakti Scholarship encourage women to pursue education in traditionally male-dominated fields like STEM.
 - UPES promotes gender equality in leadership roles and academic participation.
- 6. Collaboration with Industry:
 - UPES partners with leading companies for internships, campus placements, and skill training, ensuring students are industry-ready.
 - The university hosts job fairs, hackathons, and competitions to connect students with employers.
- 7. Community Outreach and Skill Training:
 - UPES engages with local communities through skill training workshops, enhancing employment opportunities for youth and women.
 - The university conducts career awareness programs in schools and colleges to inspire future professionals.
- 8. Internships and Placements:

- With a strong placement record, UPES ensures that students secure meaningful employment opportunities post-graduation.
- The university collaborates with multinational corporations to provide global exposure and diverse career opportunities.

Impact of UPES's Contributions to SDG 8

By integrating education, research, and industry collaboration, UPES actively supports SDG 8. The university's focus on skill development, entrepreneurship, and career readiness equips students to contribute meaningfully to economic growth and global workforce demands. Its efforts create a ripple effect, empowering not just its students but also the communities it serves, reinforcing the commitment to achieving decent work and economic growth.

Recruitment and Selection

<https://upes-production-cvb3e7frghdda0a4.z01.azurefd.net/drupal-data/2023-09/principles-of-engagement.pdf> [1]

1.Objective

1.1. The objective of this policy is to lay down guidelines for hiring talented and competent professionals for UPES who will contribute their best to fulfill the goals of UPES.

1.2. UPES is committed to select candidates based only on merit and as seen fit for the role to be hired for. UPES is against any form of discrimination while employing people at UPES.

2. Applicability

2.1. This policy is applicable to all full-time and part-time employees, including those appointed on contract basis.

3. Equal Opportunity, Diversity & Inclusion

3.1.1 UPES is committed to provide equal opportunity to all and attract a diverse and effective workforce with a wide range of abilities, experience and skills.

3.1.2 Therefore, employment practices in UPES will be based on merit, qualifications, and competencies suitable to the given role; and will not be influenced or affected by an applicant's or employee's gender, caste, religion, age (within statutory limits), marital status, nationality, ancestry, ethnicity, geographical origin, sexual orientation, disability, proximity to another employee, or any other trait protected by law.

3.1.3 UPES does not tolerate any form of bias or discrimination against any employee, by virtue of any above indicated trait.

3.1.4 There will be no preference given to any candidate. Existing employees may provide references; however, hiring decision will be solely based on merit.

3.1.5 Any employee involved in the hiring process, found to be engaging in any type of unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

3.2. Employment of Relatives

3.2.1. UPES permits the employment of relatives in the University provided:

- a. They do not work for the same department or function.
- b. They do not share the same Reporting Manager and do not have any direct or indirect reporting relationship.
- c. When an employee becomes aware that a relative is seeking employment in the University, it is her/his duty to inform HR regarding the relationship shared with the candidate. It is the duty of HR to let the Reporting Manager know about the candidate.
- d. The Dean/ Functional Head shall approve hiring of relatives. HR should ensure that the same is documented and kept in records.
- e. It is the responsibility of the Dean/ Functional Head to monitor changes in employee reporting relations after the initial hiring to ensure compliance with this policy.
- f. In the course of employment, if the situation arises that two employees become close relatives and are in a position where direct or indirect conflict of interest may arise, it is the responsibility of the employees to inform the Reporting Manager and HR regarding this change.
- g. Either of the employees may seek a transfer or change, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor. If there is no possibility of a change within the University, the HR may ask either of the two to seek alternative employment.
- h. The definition of relatives, for the purpose of this policy, includes relatives both by blood and marriage, i.e., parents, parents-in-law, spouse, children, brothers, sisters, brother-in-law and sister-in-law.

4.2. Manpower Planning

4.2.1. Manpower Planning helps to estimate the annual manpower costs and ensures its alignment with the current plans of UPES. This provides clarity to HR department on the basis of which recruitment strategy for the year is designed by Head - HR in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor/ and Deans/ Functional Heads.

4.2.2. Manpower plan should clearly indicate

- (i) the positions,
- (ii) number of vacancies
- (iii) the type of employment and
- (iii) whether it is a new/ replacement position.

4.2.3. The final approval on manpower plan will be given by the Vice-Chancellor.

4.3. Job Description

4.3.1. Job descriptions are an important input for HR to hire the right candidate.

4.3.2. It is the responsibility of the Reporting Manager to prepare a Job Description in the prescribed format in consultation with HR for every position.

4.3.3. The Dean / Functional Head is required to approve the Job Description.

4.4. Recruitment Process

4.4.1. Vacancy and Approval

- a. Recruitment is the responsibility of the Reporting Manager and s/he shall initiate the recruitment process for a vacant position.
- b. The Reporting Manager is required to inform HR when a vacancy arises, through an e-mail.
- c. In case of a vacancy arising, which is not part of the annual manpower plan, a business case will have to be presented by Deans/ Functional Heads to the Vice-Chancellor and Head - HR for exceptional approvals.
- d. HR will be responsible for identifying the sources to be used for sourcing of candidates.
- e. The different sources of hiring are as described below:

External Sources

- Job Portals like Naukri, Monster
- Social Networking sites like LinkedIn
- Consultants
- Advertisement in newspapers
- Campus Hiring

Internal Sources

- Internal Mobility/Job Posting
- In-house Data Bank
- Employee referrals
- UPES Website

- a. Job Portals / Websites
- b. Vacancies will be advertised on the identified Job Portals by HR for a minimum of 30 days depending on the urgency of the required position
- c. Consultants / Executive Search firms
 - Recruitment consultants are specialists in sourcing candidates for all kinds of recruitments and their services can be used for recruitment for various positions.
 - The terms and conditions including the commercials for the recruitment agencies shall be negotiated and empaneled accordingly by HR.
 - HR shall coordinate the entire process with the recruitment consultant. No other employee will contact recruitment agencies directly. However, employees may refer such consultants to the HR, who may then follow the empanelment process.
 - The recruitment consultants engaged shall be evaluated every 6 months and may be changed if the services offered are not found satisfactory.
 - HR will track the expenses on regular basis and maintain the records.
- d. Advertisements in Newspapers
 - HR shall give advertisements in local and national newspapers regarding vacancies at UPES.
 - The content of the advertisement shall be drafted by HR in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor / Deans / Functional Heads.
- e. University Website and Social Networking Sites
 - HR shall also upload the vacancies on UPES website and the UPES's accounts on various social networking sites, as and when required. No employee will be authorized to post any

4.5 Internal Mobility

- Based on the recruitment plan and the position, HR shall first make an attempt to utilize an internal resource to fill in the vacancy.
- An employee applying for an internal job posting should
 - a. have at least 24 months of continuous employment in the current role with UPES.
 - b. have a rating of 'E' or above during last 2 consecutive performance review cycles.
 - c. have the requisite qualifications, skill sets, behavioral competencies and track record of achievements
- The internal job postings (IJPs) will be shared with all employees in an email format.
- The IJP will be active for 1 week from the date of posting within which the interested employees can apply with last date for application clearly being specified in the IJP.
- All employees meeting the eligibility criteria can apply to the position keeping their managers informed about the same. These applications will reach the internal mobility counsellor who will then evaluate all the applications based on the eligibility criteria. All those meeting the eligibility criteria, will then be evaluated by the hiring manager(s).
- In case the employee is required to travel, TA/DA for attending interviews will be reimbursed to the candidate in accordance with the company's travel policy.
- In case selected, the internal mobility counsellor, the current manager and the new hiring manager along with the internal candidate will work on the transition plan including the plan for knowledge transfer, last date of work etc.

- Ideally, no current manager will be allowed to retain the employee beyond the notice period applicable to the moving employee. In case of conflict in release of the employee, the final decision will rest with the Vice- Chancellor, and Head - HR. This is to ensure that both business continuity & personal aspirations are met, as part of this process.
 - Employee has the option to decline the offer if her/his expectations are not met, after the offer has been made.
 - Once the movement of the employee is finalized, the movement will happen at the same level and any increments or promotions will happen as per the merit cycle. If a movement happens during the middle of the year – ratings from both managers will be taken on a prorated basis and a common rating will be arrived at.
 - Relocation assistance will be paid in the event of change of place of work due to a successful IJP movement.
 - The talent acquisition team in the meanwhile will work directly with the current manager on the positions that get vacant, as a result of the internal mobility.
 - This policy may see certain variations depending on the need of the role, which shall be informed with the IJP mail.
- d. Employee Referral
- UPES encourages its employees to refer their friends and acquaintances who fit the specifications given in the job descriptions for the vacant positions.
 - Participation in the Employee Referral Scheme is open to all full-time employees excluding members of HR and employees in band G4 and above.
 - All applications should be submitted to HR.
 - The referrer should not be a part of interview panel or any decision- making process related to selection and hiring of referred.
 - Referrals cannot include candidates who have already attended interview with the University in the past six months.
 - There is no bar on number of candidates referred.
 - The referral payout will happen in one month of the candidate joining.
 - If any resume referred is already a part of HR database, it will not be considered as a part of this scheme.
